

VLCP8B service note: 100-2 IMPORTANT procedure before updating software

Before installing new software make sure to export your database from you current program

Open VLCP8B program and select Update and “Export Code Library”

Export both “Pro Code Library” and “User Code Library”

Save files on your computer as a back-up.

When new program is installed you can import you files to the new program