The dental office uses only the newest and most advanced dental equipment available on the market in USA. Dental implants are from Straumann, headquartered in Basel, Switzerland. It's the largest and most advanced dental implant company in the world. Choose the top quality medical grade titanium or titanium alloy, the same materials used for other bone implants and for orthopedic joint replacements.

Our primary mission is to deliver the best and most comprehensive periodontal and implant therapy to help you not only save your natural teeth but to rebuild function and esthetics as well.

Experience, high-quality materials, and precision are the key to produce an aesthetically perfect dental implant. Rely on Dr. Rahmani for the best dental care in NYC.

Dr. Rahmani of NYC Dental Implants Center in Manhattan offers best in class treatments to patients from around the New York City area and NYC tourists.
