At DataCite, we are dedicated to fostering collaboration, knowledge sharing, and the advancement of best practices within communities worldwide. In line with this commitment, we are excited to announce the launch of the DataCite Consortia Partnership Program.

Program Overview

The DataCite Consortia Partnership Program aims to create a supportive and collaborative environment for consortium leads to enhance their skills, exchange knowledge, and strengthen partnerships.

Objectives

The program objectives include:

1. Knowledge Transfer: Facilitate the transfer of knowledge and best practices among Consortium Leads.

2. Skills Development: Enhance leadership, communication, and project management skills.

3. Collaboration: Foster a collaborative environment for sharing resources and addressing common challenges.

4. Community Building: Strengthen the sense of community among DataCite Consortium Leads.

Program Structure

The program will be developed under a cohort model, initially prioritizing the participation of organizations in GAP regions to ensure global representation and impact.

Program Components

Key components of the program include:

1. Partnership Pairing: Match experienced Consortium Leads with less experienced counterparts based on expertise, goals, and challenges.
2. Orientation Session: Kickoff meeting to introduce participants, set expectations, and provide guidelines.
3. Regular Check-ins: Quarterly virtual meetings for partnership pairs to discuss progress, challenges, and goals.
4. Training Workshops: Workshops covering relevant topics such as leadership, consortium management, and community engagement.
5. Resource Sharing Platform: Shared Drive for sharing resources, templates, and best practices among Consortium Leads.

6. Collaborative Projects: Encourage partnership pairs to collaborate on specific projects or initiatives.
